The King’s University College Students’ Council, or KUCSC, is here for your student experience at King’s. The KUCSC is made up of over 70 student leaders, 68 Sophs and 770 club leaders and members who put in countless hours to ensure your student experience is the best that it can be. This guide will explain exactly where your students’ council fees go, and why it is crucial to OPT-IN this year.

GOALS

The KUCSC Student Events portfolio is composed of passionate students dedicated to planning and organizing events for King’s students to enjoy. Campus events are a place where lifelong friendships and memories can be made, and the Student Events portfolio ensures that these events do not disappoint. The portfolio is dedicated to enhancing the student experience and ensuring events are open, inclusive and fun for everyone. Student events make King’s more than just a place to learn and study - they make King’s a home.

NOTABLE EVENTS

- GRAD BALL
- STUDENT APPRECIATION WEEK
- MAYORAL DEBATE

IMPACT

The impact of the KUCSC Student Events portfolio truly comes down to the experiences that students enjoy during their time at King’s. The Student Events portfolio ensures that students are able to make memories and friendships that will last a lifetime.

Student Events are integral to the university experience, and without the financial support of King’s students, our collective experience as students will suffer.

OPT-IN for unforgettable student events.
GOALS

Student advocacy is at the heart of over 40 student roles under the Student Affairs portfolio within KUCSC. As students, it is crucial that our voices are heard and KUCSC provides the link that can lead to real changes on campus.

Your VPSA is a voice for those whose voices normally go unheard. LGBTQ2+ rights and refugee rights are just some of the passion projects that the Student Affairs portfolio has addressed in past years.

NOTABLE CAMPAIGNS

- WUSC REFERENDUM
- FREE MENSTRUAL PRODUCTS
- GENDER NEUTRAL WASHROOMS

IMPACT

Campaigns and programs such as the ones listed above, along with the VPSA annual advocacy papers, help continue to advocate for students’ well-being and respect on campus.

The VPSA sits on various administrative committees within King’s that are comprised of administrative staff and faculty members. This in turn, allows KUCSC to have a direct connection and influence on key members of the King’s community that make decisions affecting the entire student body.

OPT-IN for your student voice to be heard.
GOALS

Your student experience is fueled by the KUCSC. Everything from your first year orientation week, all the way to your Grad Ball are put on and supported by your students' council. KUCSC supports experiential learning through various positions on students' council and allows students to gain first-hand experience and apply classroom learning to initiatives that matter on campus and in the community. There are also over 20 unique clubs at King's that wouldn't be possible without KUCSC. The KUCSC has your student experience as the forefront of their mission, vision and values. KUCSC helps ensure that your years spent at King's are filled with great experiences, lasting friendships and memories to last a lifetime.

IMPACT

For the first time, the student experience lies within your own hands. Opting-in is your key to ensuring that the well-known and beloved events and experiences on campus can continue.

Your students' council makes King's so much more than just a place to write exams and study. KUCSC makes King's a home away from home, a place to belong, and most importantly a place to grow.

OPT-IN for your student experience.
"The KUCSC is the embodiment of the students, by the students, for the students. Not only does the KUCSC put on memorable events and impactful initiatives, but also allows students to have a say in their education through its faculty representatives. The KUCSC allows students to have an active role in their university experience."

JESS
4th Year, Political Science with King's Scholar

"The KUCSC helped me a lot through my first year! From having free food during my late night study sessions in the library to having events that helped me meet some of my closest friends. Even the little things they do add up and helped me keep my stress down throughout the year!"

JUSTIN
2nd Year, BMOS

"While education is at the forefront of any university, student engagement outside of the classroom is an essential component of building life skills and discovering your true potential. The KUCSC provides numerous involvement opportunities for students each year. From leadership positions as executives and associates, to coordinator positions for events, the KUCSC continually seeks to improve the university experience beyond the classroom, through both student involvement and advocacy."

ANASTAZIA
3rd Year, Honours Specialization French, Major English

"My roles on the KUCSC and it’s clubs has helped me to develop employable skills such as communication, negotiating, and project management."

 DANIELLE
4th Year, History with Political Science Minor, King's Scholar

"The KUCSC has been a huge part of my student experience - whether I realized it or not. All the student appreciation events I attended, clubs I joined, and amazing events I enjoyed at King’s all had the KUCSC backing them. My personal student experience has been immeasurably better, thanks to all the hard work and contributions of the KUCSC."

VICTORIA
4th Year, BMOS and Social Justice and Peace Studies

These voices represent just a few of the countless students that the KUCSC has positively impacted. To make sure that your student experience isn't negativity impacted by budget cuts, make sure you OPT-IN to KUCSC fees this school year.
